"JUBILATION CELEBRATION"
Southern Gospel, SATB

This is an energetic southern gospel anthem with congregation joining on the singable chorus.

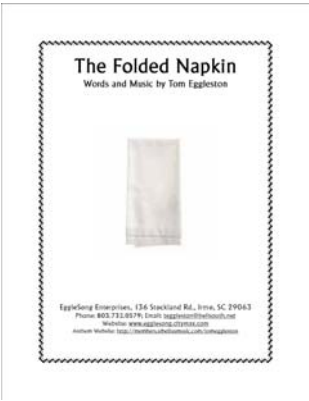

FEATURED ANTHEMS
"EVERY GENERATION"
General, SATB

A piano and snare drum accompaniment help to drive the rhythm of this anthem. Its message speaks loudly, "We pass the music of our faith to those who hear the call, We sing to the nations that Christ is Lord of all." The bridge uses a Children's choir or Child Solo-Duet. You could also add your Youth Choir as well.

"THE FOLDED NAPKIN"
Easter, SATB

The Jewish custom of folding the napkin at a meal meant you were coming back to dine. Some think that the folded napkin in the empty tomb of Jesus was also a sign of his coming back from the grave. This anthem paints a beautiful picture of His glorious return.

CONFIRMED: "I Gaze Upon the Wondrous Cross" will be included in the new "Celebrating Grace" Hymnal, 2010

The new Mercer University Press hymnal will include a hymn written by Tom Eggleston. It is titled, "I Gaze Upon the Wondrous Cross". The "Celebrating Grace" hymnal was "built by Baptists for Baptists." Emphasis has been placed on inclusive input by many people across the country. There will be a unique online component, a worship matrix. It is a web-based resource that expands the use of the hymnal and assists church leadership in their planning of worship services.

RELEASED on APRIL, 2010
