

International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church – Nov. 11, 2007

Along with many other churches around the nation and world, we will be having a day of prayer for the persecuted church here at First Baptist. To my knowledge, this is the first time that we have done this. We wanted to make our congregation aware of the difficult struggles that many Christians in other parts of the world are going through for standing firm in their faith. This day of prayer was started by the Voice of the Martyrs.

The Voice of the Martyrs is a non-profit, interdenominational organization with a vision for aiding Christians around the world who are being persecuted for their faith in Christ, fulfilling the Great Commission, and educating the world about the ongoing persecution of Christians.

VOM is headquartered in Bartlesville, Oklahoma with thirty affiliated international offices, and an enormous team of servant-hearted volunteers.

You can learn more about this organization at: www.persecution.com. We encourage you to come to this service with an open heart and mind and a prayerful spirit as we seek to remember those who are being persecuted for their Christian faith.
