DIFFERENT KINDS OF VISION— Part 3...Double Vision by Bob Burroughs

Part 1—No Vision

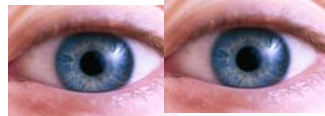

Part 2—Blurred Vision

Part 3—Double Vision

There are people around who have double vision. People with double vision usually express things using two-part sentences. They say things like: “No matter how hard I work...I’m still criticized.

vision have a desire to take that big step...to try something new—to experiment...but there is never the courage to step into the water...and get started.

People with double vision will forever be in the “land of excuses.”

“I can’t see the forest for the trees!”

“I am their leader, which way did they go.”

“I’ve tried that...but it just doesn’t work for me.”

“I know I need to be a part of that experience.. But I just can’t find the time.”

(From Church Music in Today’s World by Bob Burroughs, 2001, Tempo Productions, Inc., Pg. 16).
