DIFFERENT KINDS OF VISION— Part 4...Tunnel Vision by Bob Burroughs

Part 1—No Vision

Part 2—Blurred Vision

Part 3—Double Vision

Part 4—Tunnel Vision

Then there are a great many people who have tunnel vision. These are the people who see only what they want to see—to see what will make them look good. They are the great protectors of the turf—in their families, jobs in the church. People with tunnel vision are the most unwilling to be a part of the ministry dream...or to be involved with anyone who would in any way threaten their own private territory.

I speak to Ministers of

Q. Your mother ate us out of house and home.

Music often on a subject I like to call the fortress mentality. This simply means:

“Everything of any importance must happen within the walls of my church... because nothing of any importance ever happens outside my fortress or my church.”

Persons with tunnel vision will continue to see only what they wish to see as it relates to their Fortress and ignore other sign of intelligent life around them.
